

Determine the appropriate meaning and possible sign(s) for the underlined concepts in each sentence. Keep in mind that there is not always one sign or sign phrase that can directly substitute for the underlined concept. You may have to rearrange, delete, or add parts to the sentence in order to interpret it correctly.

English sentence/phrase:

What the sentence/phrase means:

1. I won't put up with it any longer.
2. Do you think you'll ever catch up on your work?
3. Will you take over for me?
4. Please turn off the lights.
5. I was taken off the list.
6. I hope our plans don't fall through.
7. Please put it there on the table.
8. My wish came true.
9. I was turned down again.
10. He looks up to his father for guidance.
11. The children made fun of the little boy.
12. I couldn't get up this morning.
13. Strike out that last sentence.
14. Don't look a gift horse in the mouth.
15. Look over this carefully.
16. The story was all make believe.
17. My birthday falls on a Monday this year.
18. These are trying times.
19. Don't quit now, it's almost over.
20. Will you come over later?
21. Please pick up your shoes.
22. It's my turn to write.
23. She's a knock out.
24. We used up all the ketchup.
25. Rise and shine!
26. I recognized her as she came across the room.
27. I'll look into it first thing tomorrow.
28. The kitchen sink ran over this morning.

Determine the appropriate meaning and possible sign(s) for the underlined concepts in each sentence. Keep in mind that there is not always one sign or sign phrase that can directly substitute for the underlined concept. You may have to rearrange, delete, or add parts to the sentence in order to interpret it correctly.

Left column represent an English sentence/ phrase; the right column is a space for you to determine what the sentence/ phrase means.

29. I was just about to give up.
30. Let's take a walk.
31. She did a take off on the queen.
32. Keep out of my room!
33. I played dumb so he would go away.
34. Be careful not to fall behind in your studies.
35. It's not easy to bring up children.
36. He played right into my hands.
37. Three large fish got away.
38. He really turns me off.
39. We'll have around 10 people to our party.
40. Why don't you kiss and make up?
41. He took credit for the story.
42. Keep this secret to yourself.
43. Make sure you have the right one.
44. I've been very happy up to now.
45. The house is somewhere around here.
46. I had to put down $100 on the new coat.
47. We're going out tomorrow night.
48. The airplane took off an hour late.
49. I came across a silver dollar yesterday.
50. Jane has been going with Bill for two years now.
51. Put the gelatin in the refrigerator to set.
52. Mother always seems to rise to the occasion.
53. He took the blame for the accident.
54. That picture turns me off.
55. Can you break away for a minute?
56. There was a knock out in the 5th round.
57. My car broke down today.
58. He makes a lot of money at that job.
59. Don't buy up everything in the store!
60. I'm going to hold out for a better offer.

Determine the appropriate meaning and possible sign(s) for the underlined concepts in each sentence. Keep in mind that there is not always one sign or sign phrase that can directly substitute for the underlined concept. You may have to rearrange, delete, or add parts to the sentence in order to interpret it correctly.

Left column represent an English sentence/ phrase; the right column is a space for you to determine what the sentence/ phrase means.

61. Mary fell for John's story.
62. Shall we play a joke on her?
63. The mattress was so hard, I couldn't sleep.
64. Look up the meaning in the dictionary.
65. Will he take her out again?
66. The rich people looked down on the beggars.
67. Don't lean against that glass!
68. John will be his backup in the game.
69. Did you credit my account?
70. I know he's just putting me on.
71. Come around to the side door.
72. It looks like rain.
73. I plan to drop in on my mother tomorrow.
74. I'm going to take Sue to the dance.
75. He didn't show up for the meeting.
76. It's up to you to decide.
77. I have to make dinner now.
78. Her hair falls from her shoulders.
79. She agreed to run for the Senate.
80. I think I'll take a few days off.
81. I have seen you before.
28. Take it easy now!
83. Leave a little play in the rope while you tie the knots.
84. I didn't recognize her without her makeup.
85. He could always get a rise out of his sister.
86. Did she try out for the team?
87. Get off your high horse.
88. Joe quit his job yesterday.
89. John applied for the job as a carry-out boy.
90. Set the table for eight people.
91. How did all of that come about?
92. Please take off your coat.

Determine the appropriate meaning and possible sign(s) for the underlined concepts in each sentence. Keep in mind that there is not always one sign or sign phrase that can directly substitute for the underlined concept. You may have to rearrange, delete, or add parts to the sentence in order to interpret it correctly.

Left column represent an English sentence/ phrase; the right column is a space for you to determine what the sentence/ phrase means.

93. He's really moving up in the firm.
94. Please leave out the lettuce in my sandwich.
95. I have to look after my sister.
96. The discovery was a real breakthrough.
97. That's a horse of a different color.
98. You can air your feelings at the meeting.
99. We don't get along very well.
100. When did you get back from France?
101. He's put on a lot of weight in the last year.
102. I'm looking forward to the party on Saturday.
103. This letter holds the answer to the mystery.
104. We've had a run of visitors lately.
105. Pick out the one you want.
106. It's straight from the horse's mouth.
107. The sign said, "Keep off the grass."
108. He decided to turn over a new leaf.
109. He found $30,000? Oh, come on, get out of here!
110. You look like my sister.
111. Try to answer the hard questions first.
112. I left out this name by mistake.
113. Do you think the snow will let up soon?
114. Hold still while I clean your wound.
115. The man broke out of jail.
116. We had to put off the meeting until Thursday.
117. He stood out like a sore thumb.
118. Cut that out!
119. Let's set that act to music.